Re: Amglo Kemlite Laboratories, Inc.,
Case 13-CA-065271

Dear Ms. Ossak:

This letter acknowledges receipt of the request for an extension of time that you filed on December 24, 2020 in the above-referenced case. You seek an extension to file a request for review of the General Counsel's decision denying your appeal of the Regional Director's compliance determination. The General Counsel issued his denial letter on October 23, 2020.

Section 102.53(c) of the Board's Rules and Regulations permits the Charging Party to file a request for review within 14 days after service of the General Counsel's decision. In addition, Rule 102.2(c) provides that, except in circumstances not relevant here, requests for an extension of time must be filed no later than the date on which the document is due.

Applying these rules, the due date for filing a request for review of the General Counsel's denial letter was November 6, 2020, but you have not filed a request for review. In addition, your request for an extension of time was filed after that date. In view of this, your extension request is denied.

I recognize that, in your extension request, you state that you did not receive the General Counsel's denial letter.¹ Rule 102.2(d) allows parties to file certain documents

The reason for my request is that I was not notified about the decision on my appeal that happened on Oct, 23 my due date expired on Nov, 6

I didn't receive any documentation from Office of Appeal or the Region about the denial of my appeal.

On Dec 13 I was contacted by a agent to confirm the Regions recommendations to close the case and they was the first time I was told about my appeal being denied, over month and a half later from my Nov, 6th due date, there for I couldn't appeal in the due time I was given.

within a reasonable time after the due date only upon good cause shown based on excusable neglect and when no undue prejudice would result. The rule provides that:

A party seeking to file such documents beyond the time prescribed by these Rules must file, along with the document, a motion that states the grounds relied on for requesting permission to file untimely. The specific facts relied on to support the motion must be set forth in affidavit form and sworn to by individuals with personal knowledge of the facts.

Based on this rule, in order for the Board to potentially consider an untimely-filed request for review you must file a motion seeking permission to file out of time. Along with the motion you must file your proposed request for review in addition to a sworn affidavit(s) by you and/or other individuals with personal knowledge of the reasons for the untimely filing.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Mark G. Eskenazi
Associate Executive Secretary

Reason for me waiting and not trying to find out what's happening with appeal is that I was told to wait just like any other time. Nobody could tell me the time frame in which I should expect for the appeal to be reviewed and decided on, and if I'll receive a letter, that never came.

That's why I'm asking for extension of time to be able to exercise my rights to the fullest
